

Lawns to Lettuce Cost-Share Program

The Snohomish Conservation District is now offering cost-share opportunities up to $500 to qualified individuals and organizations that are working towards community-based urban agriculture in Snohomish County and Camano Island. Projects will be chosen based on criteria such as the engagement of partners and diverse community members, and the demonstration of environmentally-sound techniques.

Some cost-share examples include:

- Building materials for raised beds
- Soil and compost
- Seeds
- Rain catchment systems
- Signs
- Compost bins
- Communication and outreach efforts
- Lawn removal

The list goes on!!

To apply for the cost-share program:

1. Fill out application
2. Submit application with any background information you feel would be helpful (letters of support, design plans, etc.)
3. Turn in application and other documents by:
 - a. Email: jcrumbley@snohomishcd.org
 - b. Mail: 528 91st St. SE, Lake Stevens, WA 98258

Date:	Name of Organization:
Contact Person:	Title:
Site Address:
Mailing Address:
Phone:	Email:
Name of Project:

Snohomish Conservation District

working together for better ground since 1941

528 91st Ave NE, Ste A, Lake Stevens, WA 98258-2538 425-335-5634 www.snohomishcd.org

Garden and/or Organization Background:
Project Description and Budget (including any matching funds):
Amount Requested (up to $500 per site):
How will this funding further your goals as a group?
How does this project meet SCDs criteria of fostering partnerships, providing outreach to diverse communities, and/or demonstrating sustainable practices?
How do you plan to keep community members engaged with your project over time?

For SCD Official Use Only

SCD site visit date: _____ Completed by: _____

Date cost-share application reviewed: _____ by: _____

Approved/Declined: _____ Reason: _____

Photo Release and Information Disclosure Forms Signed

Implementation Verification

Project completion date: _____ Cost-share installation approved by: _____

Photo documentation received (check boxes): Before (), After ()

Questions? Please contact Joe Crumbley at 425-377-7028, jcrumbley@snohomishcd.org